NOTES:

CHALLENGE

Downtown areas continue to expand with larger building structures cramming a variety of exposures. It's important to maintain awareness of new buildings as they are being constructed and occupied.

This is a very large multi-story building on fire located in the middle of the downtown area. It's close to the end of the business day as you arrive.

It's your call!

DISCUSSION

- What problems do you anticipate?
- What personnel safety issues come to mind?
- What concerns do you have about the general public and evacuation that may be necessary?
- How prepared is your department equipped to handle large structural fires?
- You are the safety officer, what instructions do you have for your crew?
- What are your concerns as the incident commander?

The greatest asset of the fire service is our people; protect them!
